Press Release No. 011/07

The UN Mission in Sudan condemns the killing of an AMIS Officer in El Fasher, North Darfur

Khartoum, 16 April 2007: The United Nations Mission in Sudan (UNMIS) strongly condemns the killing of an AMIS Officer on 14 April 2007 near the AMIS camp in El Fasher by unknown armed men.

UNMIS extends its condolences to AMIS and to the family of the officer who lost his life.

UNMIS is deeply concerned about the repeated attacks against AMIS personnel that resulted in ten deaths since the beginning of the year as well as several carjackings.

UNMIS calls on all parties to stop forthwith attacks against AMIS personnel and assets and to respect fully the agreements they have signed to improve the security situation in Darfur.

UNMIS urges all parties to act swiftly to identify the perpetrators of these attacks and hold them accountable as well as prevent such attacks from taking place.
